

River Poems

Write your own river poem, inspired by your local river. Take us on the journey of your river, using some of the words you've learnt about rivers in your poem.

Your title: Think of a suitable title which describes your poem

Design: Will it be a shape poem, an acrostic poem, rhyming? You decide.

Ideas of words for an acrostic poem or for alliterations in your poem

River rushing raging rapid rainy intense icy impressive iconic infinite valley view vertical vigorous vast everlasting enormous evening eager restful race rich romantic ratty

Other adjectives which you could use in your poem:

meandering flowing peaceful racing beautiful life freedom timeless bubbling gentle eroding tranquil winding freedom

River words

riverbed tributary flooding rapids source mouth sea waterfall stream estuary spring bank nature flow wildlife marshy channel

Shape and style:

Will your poem be in the shape of a river?
Decide on your design

Illustrate your poem:

